ARM YOURSELF FOR LIFE

DAUSEN KLUIN

*" I don't live with
Cerebral Palsy,
Cerebral Palsy lives with me."*

DAUSEN KLUIN

Dausen Kluin was born with Cerebral Palsy and has limited mobility on the left side of his body. This hasn't stopped Dausen from achieving his goals as becoming a motivational speaker and being recognized as a World Arm Wrestling Champion. When you hear Dausen reflect on his life journey, you understand that from an early age he conquered obstacles and pushed himself forward to exceed his body's goals and limitations.

Recognizing that traditional sports like hockey were not possible, he took up arm wrestling and soon realized that his fierce determination and the right side of his body was built to excel in this sport!

Dausen lives on a farm in Fort Assiniboine AB with his parents Dave & Carol. He has 3 older siblings, Jessica-(Sister) & Joe-(her husband), Dylan-(nephew), Sarah-(niece), Curtis & Josh-(brothers).

Winners Never Quit & Quitters never win!!!

They all have had a positive influence on him in his life and have encouraged him to live out his dreams.

He graduated from the Fort Assiniboine High School in June of 2011. He would like to pursue Post Secondary education in his future. He is an active member of his community, notably with the Camp Creek 4-H Beef Club. He is an avid outdoorsman and enjoys horseback riding, hunting, quadding, skiing, baseball, but is most proud of his accomplishments with his Professional Arm Wrestling.

Dausen has attended the Worlds In Armwrestling two times already at his young age. He attended Kelowna Worlds in 2008, placing 5th in the World in his category. Traveling to Las Vegas in December of 2010, he placed 6th in Disabled & 7th in the Youth Category.

It's this spirit and determination in Dausen that has given him the power and the courage to share his story with others.
